

Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, “Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all.” He took a little child whom he placed among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.”

We're all willing to be a somebody for God, but are we willing to be a nobody for him?

Hebrews 11

v8-9 By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. <sup>9</sup> By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

24-26 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

37 -38 They were put to death by stoning; they were sawed in two; they were killed by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated— the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves and in holes in the ground.

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:

<sup>6</sup> Who, being in very nature God,
did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage;

<sup>7</sup> rather, he made himself nothing
by taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

<sup>8</sup> And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself
by becoming obedient to death—
even death on a cross!

<sup>9</sup> Therefore God exalted him to the highest place
and gave him the name that is above every name,

<sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup> and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you.
