After this, the Lord Jesus formed thirty-five teams among the other disciples. Each team was two disciples, seventy in all, and he commissioned them to go ahead of him into every town he was about to visit. He released them with these instructions:
“The harvest is huge and ripe.

But there are not enough harvesters to bring it all in. As you go, plead with the Owner of the Harvest to drive out into his harvest fields many more workers. Now, off you go! I am sending you out even though you feel as vulnerable as lambs going into a pack of wolves. You won't need to take anything with you—trust in God alone.

And don't get distracted from my purpose by anyone you might meet along the way. "Once you enter a house, speak to the people there and say, 'God's blessing of peace be upon this house!' If a lover of peace resides there, your peace will rest upon that household.

But if you are rejected, your blessing of peace will come back upon you. Don't feel the need to shift from one house to another, but stay put in one home during your time in that city. Eat and drink whatever they serve you. Receive their hospitality, for you are my harvester, and you deserve to be cared for.
